Dedication

The "El Cenizo" Staff is proud to dedicate this annual to two faculty members who have achieved a place of honor in our hearts in the time they have shared with us for our benefit; Mrs. Nan X. Boehman and Mr. M. J. Howard. They will always be remembered by every student of this High School for their patience, guidance, and untiring co-operation. To them our sincere wishes.

Dear Students:

In looking back over the century of Eagle Pass's existence, we possibly find ourselves wishing that we might have had the opportunity of helping to start this community. Perhaps there are a number of changes we would have made.

And then we consider the difficulties attending the labors of our forebears who built that we might enjoy what we have and are thankful that a benevolent Providence directed them here in 1849.

At the same time we dedicate ourselves to making further improvements in our community that will lighten the path of those who follow us.

Sincerely,

C. J. Garland
Superintendent

To the students:

The theme of this book is based on the idea of a hundred years of progress. When you look through the pages a few years from now, it is hoped that you will be well on your way toward your goal in life and that your contributions will adequately compensate for the opportunities afforded you in life.

Sincerely,

C. A. Landrum

SENIOR PLAYS

Contigo Pan Y Cebolla

Senior plays will be presented on April 29th under the direction of Mr. M. J. Howard, Mrs. M. Ripple, Mrs. L. Vest and Mrs. N. Bothemer.

The Spanish play under the direction of Mr. Howard is "Contigo Pan y Cebolla". This comedy includes Doña Matilde, Gloria Riojas, who is a newly-wed bride and Don Eduardo, Santiago Troncoso, her groom. Don Pedro, the young lady's father is portrayed by Adalberto González and the Casero by Luis Rodríguez. La vecina is played by Enriqueta Rodríguez and la Marqueza by Irene Rodríguez. Luis Rangel does the butler's part.

The whole comedy deals with what the poor girl has to stand because of her poorness, now acquired through her marriage to the poor "boyfriend", whom she married not for money, but for love.

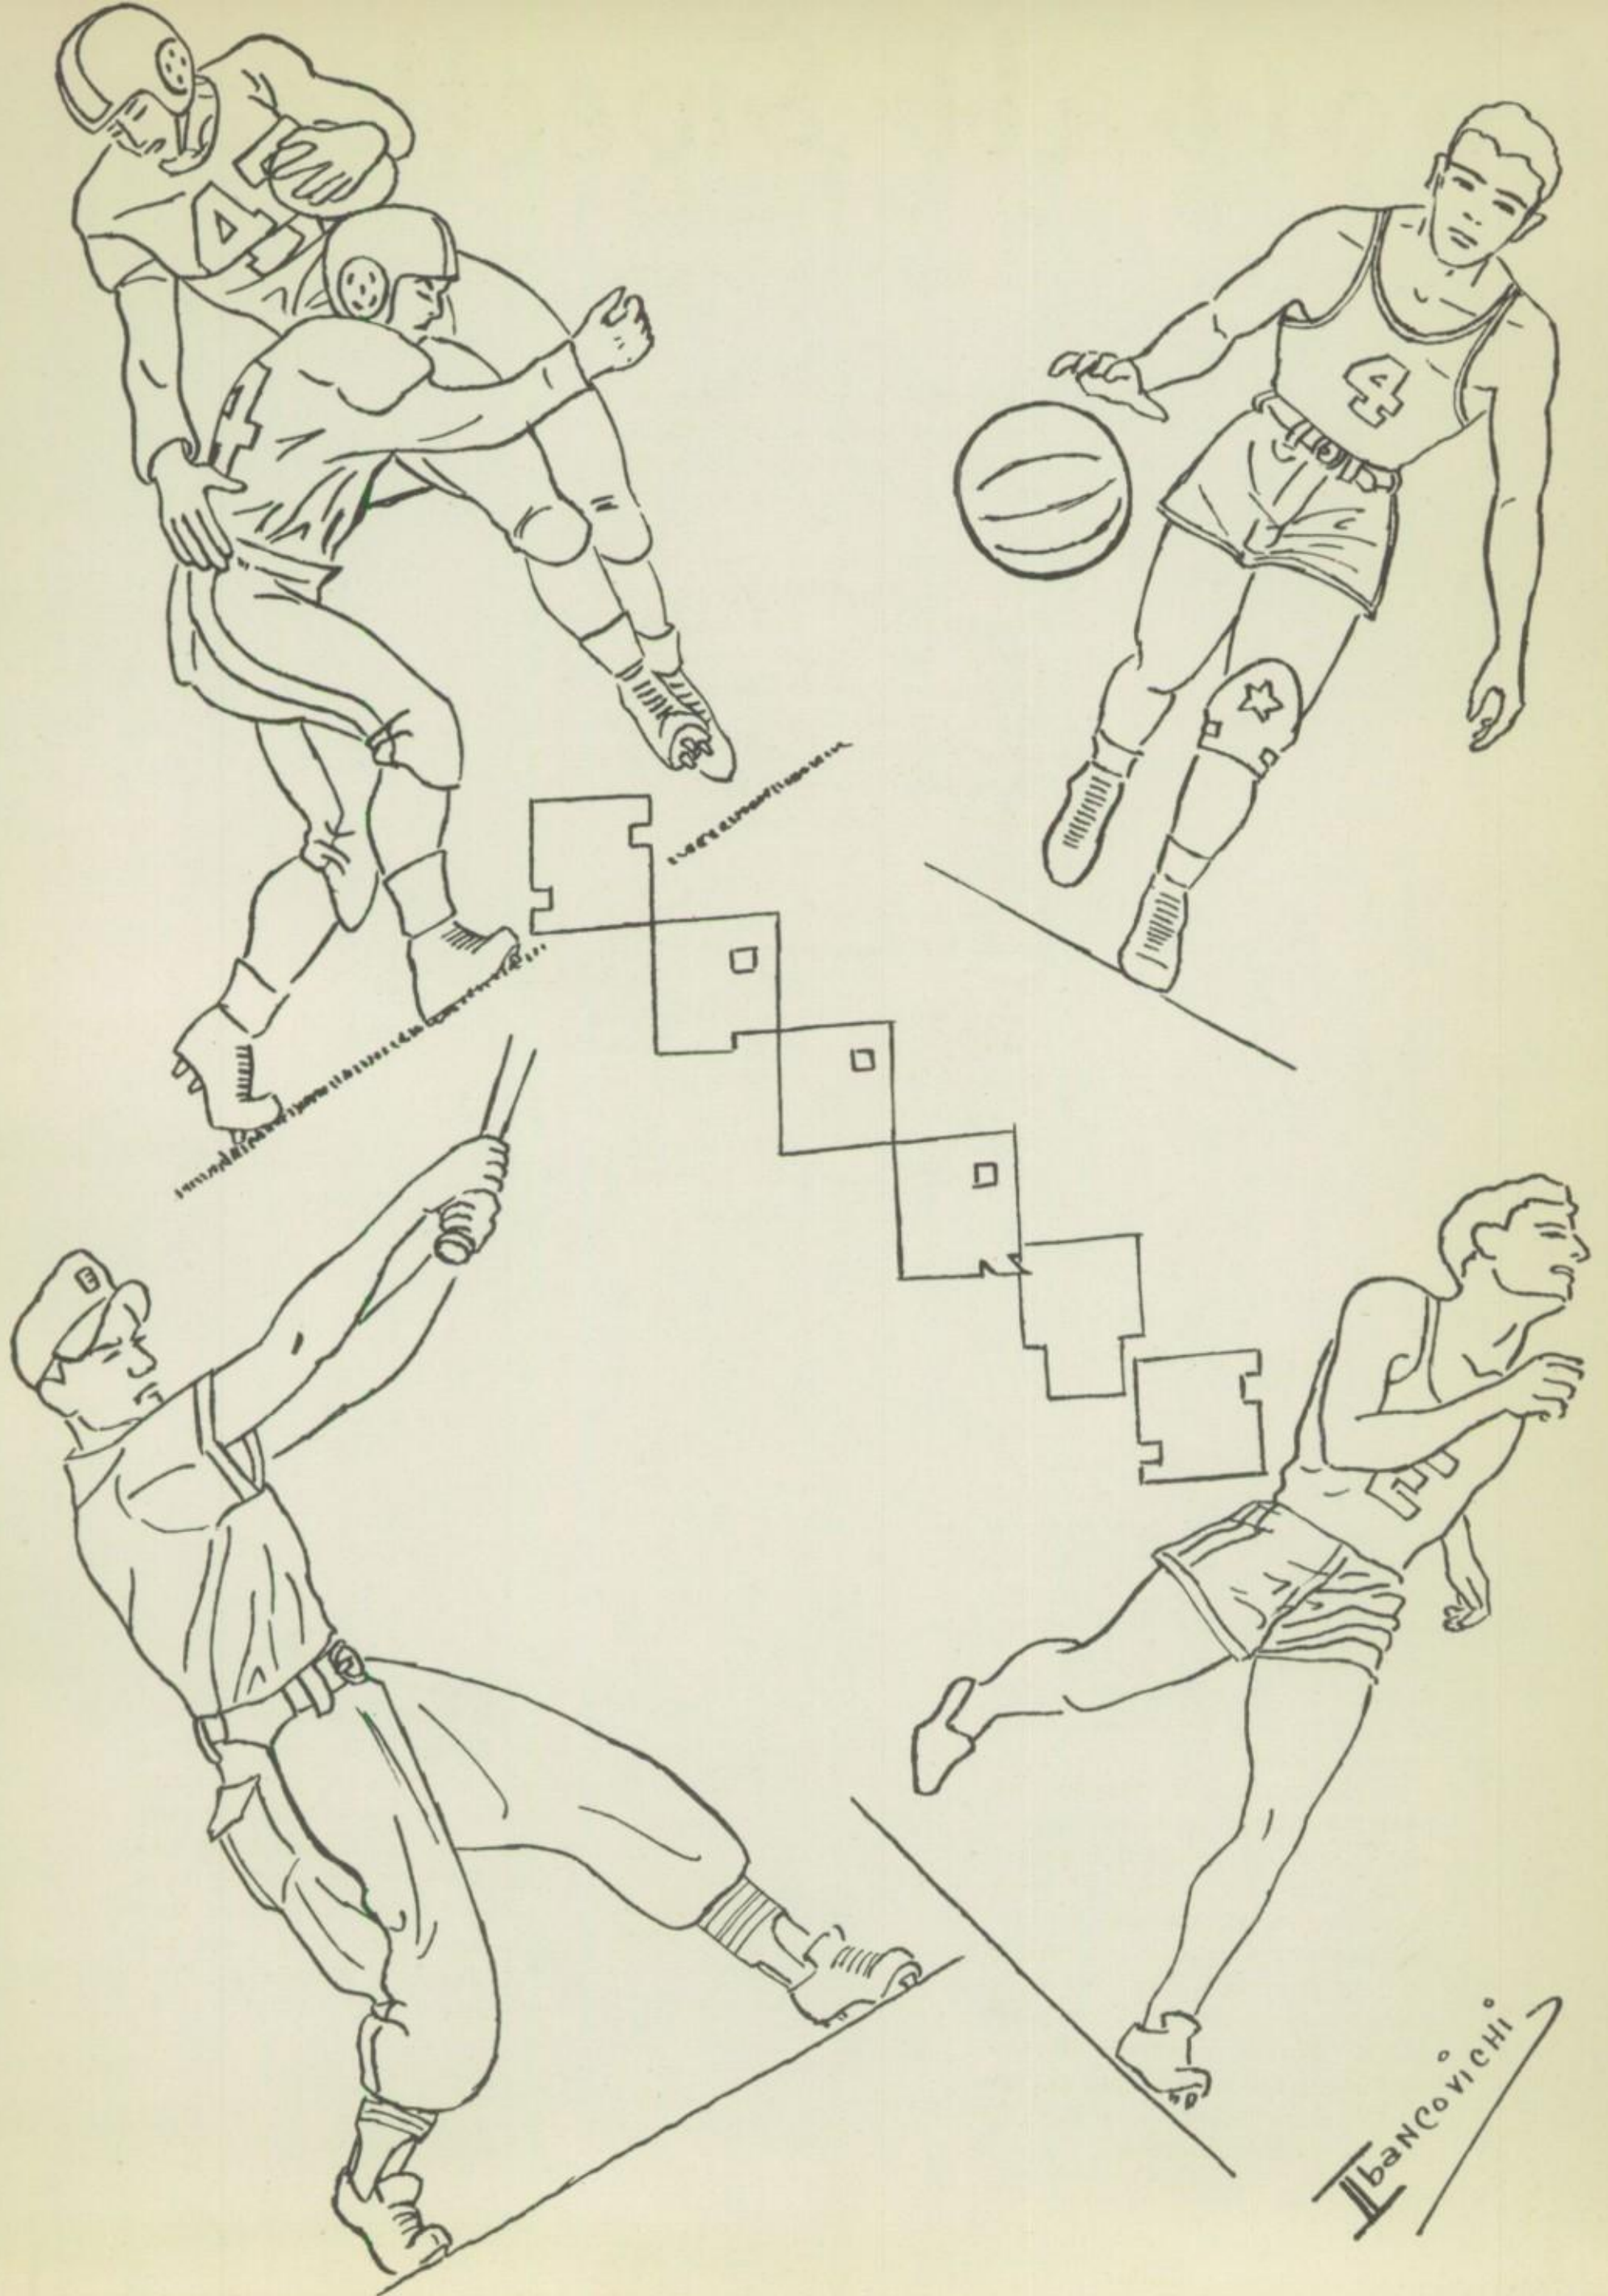

High Window

"High Window" is a drama in which Minerva García portrayed as Emily Winthrop, Jack Sims as Judge Craig, Emily's lawyer, JoAnn Hirzel as Judith Ware, secretary and nurse to Mrs. Winthrop, Robert Wilson as Walter Hodge, nephew to Emily, and Linda Norton portrays by Ana Kifuri, as a newspaper reporter.

Becoming disgusted with her nephew, she claims he is mentally ill and should be committed to an asylum. She also accuses her secretary, Judith of wanting to take her husband from her. Linda, in an interview with Mrs. Winthrop, asks for facts about her husband's death. Was it a natural death or was it murder? Don't fail to come to the senior plays and find the answer to this question!

Make Room For Rodney

The leading characters in the comedy, "Make Room for Rodney" are Bettie Reindorp and Richard Lane. Rodney, wanting privacy, occupies the sewing room, sharing it of course with the sewing machine. Since his sister has a room of her own, Rodney tries to marry her off so he can then inherit her room. So, come and see if Rodney's dreams of "privacy" come true!
